Tasting notes

Crystal clear, pale ruby red in color and high viscosity. The aroma that rises from the glass immediately reveals the currant and delicate spice flavors characteristic of the grape variety, as well as an elegant harmony of pepper and cinnamon. It is dry, medium-bodied and medium-full in flavor. The notes promised in the bouquet are reflected in the flavor, and the infinitely long finish bids farewell with velvety tannins. A truly enjoyable, modern wine that suits the tastes of the world.
